

Meet With You

Unknown

Oh how I long to meet with you my Lord
Above all else it's you that I adore
So find me here and speak to me let me hear Your voice
Oh how I long to meet with You my Lord

In Your presence I find peace
In Your arms Lord I find rest
It's Your heart that I will seek
And gaze on Your beauty forever and ever

I will run to You
I will run to You
You've awakened my heart, You've awakened my heart

When the soul, like the little child, feels troubled, it is a great help to come into the presence of God and “rest” in that divine embrace.
