Tending the Holy

Many are searching for meaning and purpose in life in the midst of our rapid-paced society.

*Where do we go from here?
How do we find spiritual meaning and peace?
How can I live a God-centered life when everything around seems contrary to that life?
How can I deepen my prayer when I am so busy?*

These are questions that launch, or re-launch, a spiritual journey.

There is a need for people with spiritual maturity and experience to guide others on this search. Have people sought you out for guidance on their journey? Do people seem naturally drawn to you with their spiritual questions? You may be called by God to offer this gift more formally.

Christos Center has been preparing people for the ministry of spiritual direction since 1990. Many graduates now offer spiritual direction, lead retreats, facilitate formation and prayer groups, and teach spiritual formation. Others use the knowledge and experiences from this course to enhance their work in fields such as counseling, health care, pastoral work and business.
